TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS.

SIGNAL SERVICE REPORT:

"Local rain. Nearly stationary temperature."

HONEY SYRUP—Calhoun's.

MRS. NANCY SPOCKS, mother of Mr. John M. Stockton, is much better today.

FOR SALE.—Carriages and buggies, cheap, at F. Dieterich & Sons'. Bound to sell. Prices to suit the times. All work warranted.

The Latoria races will begin on the 27th and continue five days. A lively meeting is anticipated, as 600 horses will compete for the different stakes.

EDDIE PARKER, who started to Wichita, Kansas, recently, has concluded not to go any farther than Kansas City. He has accepted a position in the Recorder's office at the latter place.

DURING the May Musical Festival which begins at Cincinnati on the 18th instant, the Cincinnati and Pomeroy Packet Company—"White Collar Line"—will sell round trip tickets from this point at $2.25, good on any of their steamers.

The "constantly tired-out" feeling, so often experienced, is the result of impoverished blood, causing enfeebled vitality. Ayer's Sarsaparilla enriches the blood, increases the appetite, and promotes digestion. The system, thus invigorated, feels new strength and energy.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills are the best medicine that can be employed to correct irregularities of the stomach and bowels. Gentle, yet thorough, in their action, they cure constipation, stimulate the digestive organs and the appetite, and cleanse, build up, and strengthen the system.

AS exchange from Lawrenceburg Ky., says: Rev. J. M. Evans, of Mayville, has been for a week preaching day and night at the Presbyterian Church. There is good attendance in the day and a full house at night. Mr. Evans is a forcible, brave speaker and an honest, earnest man—things that cannot be said of all men or most speakers. There has been six or seven additions, and the meeting will continue perhaps several days.

A New Departure.

The Mayville Artificial Ice Company has established local agencies, where ice will be sold at retail at the same price as it is delivered by the wagon. The agencies are: McDonald & Pierce, Market street, near Second; W. B. Clark, grocery, Neptune Hall; L. Schatzmann, bakery, Fifth Ward; and wholesale and retail from the factory at all hours. 26-2w

That Contract Satisfactory and Things Are Beginning to Boom.

All doubt as to the guarantee for the right of way from Ashland to the Campbell County line proving satisfactory to Mr. Huntington has been settled. The following dispatch received by the Ficklin Brothers yesterday explains the present status of the matter:

CINCINNATI, May 10.—Say to Messrs. Frank and Robertson that the contract is satisfactory and will be signed by the proper officers as soon as they can be reached. They can consider the matter settled. * * *

H. E. HUNTINGTON.

James Shroule is at the head of one of the corps of surveyors retracing the line of the road through Lewis County this week.

J. H. Devereux, an engineer of Cincinnati, arrived last night, and another corps of surveyors will be placed at work on the route below this city, immediately. Eight or ten corps will be placed on the route in a few days.

The BULLETIN was told last evening that the company would advertise this week for propositions to furnish 200,000 tons to be used in the construction of the road.

It was stated a few days since by a gentleman who "stands in" with the company that Mr. Huntington expects to have 3,000 hands at work on the road in the course of a few days.

River News.

Over 5,200,000 bushels of coal were shipped from Pittsburgh on this rise.

Falling at Pittsburgh with twelve feet in channel. At Charleston twenty-one feet and falling. The Big Sandy is falling at headwaters.

Due up: Bonanza, Portsmouth, 8 p. m.; Big Sandy, Pomeroy, 12 m.; Louis A. Sherry, Pittsburgh, 1 a. m. Down: Telegraph, Cincinnati, 12:30 a. m.

The sudden rise in the Big Sandy, Kanawha and Monongahela rivers Saturday and Sunday caused heavy damages. The loss at Pittsburgh in coal and barges amounts to nearly $40,000. A large quantity of timber was swept out of the other streams.

RAMPANT REPUBLICANS

Think This an "Auspicious" Occasion to Down the "Dems"

And Gobble up the Offices, But None Seem Willing to Lead the Cohorts. They Ignore the "Nigger" Proceedings of Mass Convention.

The mass convention of the Mason County Republicans at the court house, yesterday afternoon, was, to use a common expression, a regular "pic-nic" for the audience.

The crowd, at the opening of the meeting, was a respectable one in numbers, but before the business was finished the "rank and file" had either become disgusted, or tired out and left the room, or, well, they had disappeared for some reason or other, and left only a few of the "faithful" to put the finishing touches to one of the biggest farces in the way of a convention witnessed here for a long time. Many of the Republicans recognized this, as their actions plainly showed, and enjoyed the burlesque highly.

The convention was a rich treat to the "underestimated" Democrats present, a large number of whom had been "just passing by," you know, and "drapped in" to see the fun.

We regret that we are unable to give a stenographic report of the proceedings. It would be rich reading.

W. H. Wadsworth, Jr., Secretary of the Executive Committee, called the meeting to order, in the absence of the Chairman, W. C. Shackelford. He stated the object of the convention—the nomination of a full Republican ticket for county offices, to be voted for next August. He thought this a "propitious time" for the g. o. p. to come to the front. All that was necessary was to name the candidates and they would slide into the offices just as easy as rolling off a log.

Dr. J. W. Gault was named for Chairman of the meeting, and as no one objected to the doctor enjoying that honor, his election followed. He didn't want to make a speech—wasn't in a condition to do so, but he evidently thought his brethren had forgotten what they had assembled for, for he reminded them that they had come together to nominate a ticket to be voted for next August. They must not forget that it was to be a "Republican ticket," too, and a "full ticket" at that. Why shouldn't they? This was a "propitious occasion." The doctor branched out on that old "chestnut," the financial condition of our State; jumped from that to national affairs, picturing a truly awful condition, and winding up with the startling announcement that our country was on the verge of riot and bloodshed.

This latter remark was suggested by the "sole owner and editor" of the Republican Enterprise. When on State finances, the Chairman either forgot, or intentionally omitted, to tell his hearers that there were twenty-seven States in the union with a heavier debt than Kentucky—only some five or six in as good a financial condition as our own commonwealth. For a fellow who wasn't in a "condition to speak," Dr. Gault held out longer than many expected. After he finished, Thomas A. Davis was chosen Secretary. Here ensued a painful pause. The Chairman reminded them that they were "ready for business," and wanted a plan suggested for the government of the meeting. Nobody seemed willing to "suggest," and another pause ensued of a few minutes duration, which was followed by another reminder from the chairman. This had the desired effect, and Adna A. Wadsworth moved to appoint a committee of resolutions.

The chairman named Adna A. Wadsworth, A. M. J. Cochran and George Galbreath as said committee.

The next thing on the programme was the appointment of a committee on candidates, (something entirely new), to consist of one from each precinct. On a call, Dover, Minerva, Fern Leaf, Germantown and Lewisburg turned up missing. After many suggestions, the following committee was at last decided upon: M. C. Hutchesin, G. W. Adair, W. N. Kelly, Dr. A. E. Hunter, Geo. W. Dye, Elias Collins, Scott Fletcher, W. T. Fritze, R. R. Maltby, W. H. Wadsworth, Jr., S. J. Daugherty and D. L. Wells.

While the committees were absent, Thomas A. Davis treated the audience to a few chapters of "ancient and modern history," gave the young men a send-off, and wanted them all to jump on the platform of the g. o. p. and be relentlessly carried forward by the torrent of Republicanism to political glory, "and don't you forget it." They would never get to glory in the ranks of the Democracy, if they "weren't in the ring."

Committee on candidates reported, and the fun began. Report named Hon. R. A. Cochran for County Judge. Mr. Cochran wanted his name withdrawn. He couldn't make the race—his business wouldn't listen to him. The convention wouldn't listen to this. The question to nominate carried, and Chairman Gault was on the point of declaring him elected, but caught himself and announced Mr. Cochran's unanimous nomination for County Judge.

Horatio Ficklin went through with a hurrah for County Clerk. Mr. Ficklin wasn't present to decline, but it is understood he will not accept the nomination. A viva voce vote was taken for Circuit Clerk, between Lucien Maltby, Ed. Hunter and David Dye, but no decision reached. Hunter first and then Maltby was withdrawn, and Dye got the nomination. It is said Mr. Dye will not make the race.

G. S. Judd was named for County Attorney.

Frank Devine was nominated for Sheriff, his opponent T. Forman, and Squire Wells withdrawing. Frank is one of the candidates who will accept. He has been wanting to run for office for some time, but he'll "swear off" after next August, and will never want to try it again.

Deputy Marshal W. B. Dawson was nominated for Jailor, over Squire Hunter, Byron Rudy and Squire Jefferson.

Tom. Mahar, of Murphysville, was nominated for Assessor. The Chairman vouched for Mr. Mahar. He said Tom. was an American citizen, of Irish descent, who had always been a Democrat until 1884, when he voted for Blaine. The crowd seemed to like that kind of a Republican, and Tom. went through amid vociferous applause.

Thad. P. Bullock was nominated for Surveyor, and Lewis Jefferson for Coroner. Jefferson's friends were determined that he should have a "whack" at some of the offices, and the Chairman declared him nominated for Coroner, notwithstanding the vote seemed largely in favor of his opponent, George W. Bolinger.

At this point, Henry Anderson, a colored voter, addressed the Chairman and wanted to know "where the nigger's place was on that ticket." The Chairman ruled that the gentleman was out of order—there was no question before the house.

A motion was made to make all the nominations unanimous. There was nothing like being unanimous. Before the motion was put to the house, Mr. R. A. Cochran rose and said he must decline to run for County Judge. He wouldn't make the race. His declination was accepted, and the convention proceeded to fill the vacancy. A colored brother suggested that the place be given to Mr. Anderson, but Henry wasn't nominated. Nominations, however, poured in thick and fast. Some one named A. M. J. Cochran. He declined. Then Squire Jefferson, but he had already been nominated for Coroner. Captain Hutchings was named. He declined. Some one followed and modestly mentioned the Chairman, but Dr. Gault said he would peremptorily refuse. Squire Martin didn't want the honor either, and begged to be excused. Finally, Squire C. W. Williams, of Mayville, was named and his nomination followed. Squire Williams wasn't present to "decline," but it is said he will not make the race.

In the confusion, the motion to make all the nominations unanimous was entirely forgotten and never was put to the house. Some long-winded resolutions, alleging partisan mismanagement against the Democrats, condemning "bribery and corruption by use of money and whisky at the polls," and demanding a "change" were adopted. John P. McCartney, of Flemingsburg, was endorsed for Commonwealth's Attorney. Some one thought our Congressman's course ought to be commended, and a resolution to that intent was adopted. This resolution reminded one very forcibly of the expression often heard now-a-days: "Don't shoot the organizer. He is doing the best he can." It reads:

"Resolved, By the Republicans of Mason County in mass convention assembled that Hon. William M. Wadsworth, by his action in Congress, has shown that he is the representation of good men and good measure; and we heartily commend and endorse all that he has said and done as the best that was possible."

The Executive Committee of the county was reorganized, and given power to fill any vacancies on the ticket. The convention then adjourned. A full ticket wasn't nominated, as no candidate for County Superintendent of Public Schools, one of the best offices in the county, was named. The oversight can not be accounted for, in view of the fact that they want all the offices. Here's the ticket, which is characterized as one of the weakest ever named:

County Judge—C. W. Williams.
County Clerk—Horatio Ficklin.
Circuit Clerk—David Dye.
County Attorney—G. S. Judd.
Sheriff—Frank Devine.
Jailor—W. B. Dawson.
Assessor—Tom. Mahar.
Surveyor—Thad. P. Bullock.
Coroner—Lewis Jefferson.
Superintendent of Schools—

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, joints and lower part of the abdomen, and sometimes to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulency, distention of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, protruding a very disagreeable itching after getting warm, is a common attendant. The disease is usually cured by the application of Dr. Rossano's Pile Remedy, which sets the parts in motion, absorbing the tumor, allaying the inflammation, and restoring the system. Price 50 cents. THE TABLES TURNED.
The Wife Kills the Husband and Then Shoots Herself.
New York, May 10.—Mrs. Perinola Fernandez, of Hawthorne, N. J., wife of a well-to-do young Cuban, shot and killed her husband and then sent a bullet crashing into her own brain, dying almost instantly. Mrs. Fernandez was twenty-nine years of age and very pretty. Her husband was two years her senior, and managed the New York agency of his father's estate in Cuba. Although the couple had been married thirteen years they had no children. Although Fernandez was supposed to be happy together, he was in the habit of remaining away from home at night, often indeed, he was not seen at home for a week. His only explanation to his wife for these absences was that his attendance at the club was necessary.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Saunders, a sister of Mrs. Fernandez, arrived at Hawthorne on a visit. Last Tuesday Mr. Fernandez left his home to come to this city, and did not return until Saturday afternoon. During his absence his wife had expressed her displeasure to her sister of his treatment, but when he returned she pretended that she was not angry with him. They were apparently on the best of terms when Mrs. Saunders returned, between 5 and 6 o'clock. Shortly before midnight she was aroused by the loud colored man, who cried: "Get up, Mrs. Saunders, somebody's shot!"

Running upstairs to her sister's bedroom Mrs. Saunders found Fernandez on the floor with blood gushing from his mouth and from a bullet hole in his right side, while his wife was standing partially undressed, and a 35-calibre self-loading Smith & Wesson revolver in her right hand. "My God, Lottia," Mrs. Fernandez exclaimed, "I've killed Dad." Mrs. Saunders ran over to the wounded man, who faintly called for water. She had raised his head and was trying to staunch the flow of blood, when she saw her sister raising the pistol, and before she could interfere she had pulled the trigger, the bullet crashing into her head. She fell on the floor at her husband's feet, exclaiming, "Oh, Deo, forgive me." In a few moments both had lost consciousness and by the time the physicians arrived both Mrs. Fernandez and her husband were dead.

The inquest will be held to-morrow. Where the funeral will be held is not yet settled, until some of Mrs. Fernandez's relatives are heard from. A majority of those who know the circumstances believe that Mrs. Fernandez committed the rash act in a moment of passionate jealousy.
